“There I Grew Up”

Abraham Lincoln

An Indiana 4-H Project commemorating the bicentennial of the birth of Abraham Lincoln

Success Story

Extension Educator Kendall Martin desired to create a 4-H project that honored the bicentennial of Abraham Lincoln's birthday. Over a year ago he collaborated with a friend who had interest in Lincoln and the part of his life spent in Indiana. Together Martin and his friend researched history, places and events that would be used to create a 4-H project curriculum book with many exhibit options. The project was piloted last year in Spencer County and was well received. The Lincoln bicentennial project "There I Grew Up" has been made available for all Indiana counties to use in the celebration of one of Indiana's most distinguished residents.
