

Producers Assisted With Approval Process

Livestock producers in Dubois and some surrounding counties, plan to invest over $7 million dollars in livestock production facilities. These producers were overwhelmed by the detail and scope of information in the application process required to gain IDEM approval for these projects. The Dubois County ANR Educator worked with nine producers to help them secure the necessary state and federal permits and approvals for these livestock production facilities.