Purdue Extension
Knowledge to Go
Grant County

I was referred to a client by WIC. When I called she wanted to meet at the Crisis Pregnancy Center in Marion. I agreed. She came with her fiancée. They were a joy to teach from the first class. I could tell that they both hungered for knowledge of how they could be healthy for themselves and their unborn child. Every lesson they hung on every word that I spoke. Questions were many and it became obvious that they thought about what we talked about between appointments. They both completed 9 of the Small Step Lessons and then went on to complete 6 Have a Healthy Baby Lessons. They never missed an appointment and were usually early. I was honored when they were asked to speak at the Crisis Pregnancy Fund raiser banquet. They asked me several times if I would be there. I had a busy day but finely said yes. I was surprised when at her testimony, it was almost all about Purdue Extension and how the Small Steps program and Have a Healthy Baby program has helped them. She told about each lesson and what she learned at that lesson. So everyone there got a small lesson on nutrition. They were good spokesmen for Purdue Extension. I have been honored to be a part of this couples lives. I look forward to seeing the new little one that will soon have a better start in life because of Purdue Extension Programs.
