

EFNEP 40th Anniversary Video

1969-2009

- Pasquotank County
  - FCS Agent who had once been an Adult participant of EFNEP
- Macon County
  - Pregnant daughter of EFNEP PA
    - young mother has a healthy baby, she went on to open a day care in her home and use knowledge gleaned from EFNEP to plan, purchase and feed the children in her care there healthy meals on a daily basis. Pat believes that behaviors/practices her daughter, Jennifer, carried with her from EFNEP has contributed to the success of her home-based business.
- Harnett County
  - Spanish-speaking Adult participant from Warren Williams group
- Scotland County
  - Youth participants (2-3 past and/or present with impact to share)
  - School teacher or principal
  - After-school collaborator
- Onslow County
  - On-site program with young marine families
- Forsyth County
  - Advocate for EFNEP – Dr. Robert Jones
    - Dr. Robert Jones, Director of Health Dept in Forsyth Co., has helped promote EFNEP throughout the community for several years.
  - Pregnant teen participant
    - Judy will help Ramona identify a participant (past or present) who has a compelling story of how EFNEP impacted their life and the health of their baby
- Wake County (originally from the Northeast)
  - Johnetta Loftin – former PA now teaching at Centennial Middle School
    - High performing PA who went on to complete her four-year degree as a result of new career aspirations from teaching EFNEP.

Also excels as a public school teacher and continues to help promote EFNEP, most recently through a grant opportunity